Nonfederal Support	$1,000,000
Project Period	September 2005 – September 2010
Highlights	The Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHCDA), which currently administers AFI and IDA programs on behalf of the State of Indiana, is offering 194 new IDAs for homeownership, microenterprise, and post-secondary education. The match rate is $6 to $1, up to $900 in participant savings. The State of Indiana encourages private donations to support the IDA program by offering State tax credits in exchange for contributions.
Target Population	State of Indiana.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	IHCDA is a quasi-autonomous, financially self-sufficient State government agency that has administered the State's IDA Program since 1997 and AFI grants since 1999. In offering IDAs and associated support, IHCDA partners throughout the State with 41 Community Development Corporations (CDCs) (which by State law are designated as eligible to participate in the Indiana IDA program) and 44 financial institutions. IHCDA serves as the liaison for the partnership and provides technical assistance to CDCs and financial institutions.
